All of those persons recommended to hold the municipal offices of this city-whose names were published in the Gazette of Monday, the 6th instant have received their appointments. save George L. Seaton, R. D. Beckley, Amos Thompson and James Piper, the four colored men who were recommended for seats in the Common Council.

In response to an inquiry, a telegram from Richmond to the Gazette dated at two o'clock to-day, states that no additional appointments have been made for Alexandria.

SECOND WARD RADICALS.—The regular weekly meeting of the Second Ward Republican Club was held last night in the colored school house, corner of Pitt and Princess streets, the Vice President of the Club, a colored man, in the chair, and C. J. Burton, Secretary. Speeches were delivered by T. J. Edelin, Edward Sullivan, E. E. White and P. A. Breen, and by a colored man, whose name, as also that of the Vice President of the Club, the reporter could not learn. The proceedings of the County Court of this county, in regard to its late imprisonment of C. W. DeWitt, President of the Second Ward Radical Club, in the County jail for three months, for receiving stolen goods, were severely consured by some of the orators; but consolation was afforded the flock, temporarily deprived of its shepherd, by the prophecy of an early approach of Radical supremacy, when all would be well.

WASHINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA RAILROAD. -In the Equity Court of the District of Columbia in Washington yesterday, in the case of Davidson vs. the lessees of the Washington and Alexandria Railroad Company, an order was issued referring to an auditor the petition of Messrs. Brent and Riddle, counsel in the suit, this Court ordering the lessees of the road to forthwith surrender the property is regarded, as a brutum fulmen, and no attention has been paid to it as yet it is said.

MARINE ACCIDENT.-It has already been mentioned in the Gazette that a vessel, bound to this place, had sunk off Blackston's Island. The following is an account of the accident, as reported by the Captain. The schooner Corine, Captain Cheney, from Norfolk, for this port, with a load of lumber for Messrs. Smoot & Perry and B. F. Bruner, during a heavy squall, ran aground off Wycomico, a short distance above Blackstone's Island. The schooner Mary Virginia went to her assistance on Tuesday.

LARGE ORDER. - Messrs. Green and Brother, cabinet manufacturers of this city, have received an order from Major Boyle for all the furniture required to supply the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs. The stock and prices of furniture in other cities no farther North however than Baltimore-were examined previous to giving the above mentioned order, but the superior attractions offered by the Messrs. Green, induced Major Boyle to make his purchase here.

COLORED BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—At meeting of the Colored Co-operative Building Association, held last night, a committee, consisting of George L. Seaton, R. D. Beckley and A. S. Perpener, was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Association, when organized. Subscription books were then opened, and the names of twenty persons soon engrossed in them. The meeting adjourned to reassemble next

From Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., April 16th. - A meet ing to advance the agricultural and commercial interests of the State was held here last night, when an address was delivered by Samuel C. Reeder, of Louisiana.

The Chamber of Commerce was authorized to call a convention of the planters and merusual trip to Mt. Vernon, in consequence of chants of the State to meet here in December. A committee was also appointed to raise means to secure a fair and impartial trial of Lieut. J. C. Braine, now imprisoned in Kings county (New York) penitentiary, on a charge

[Lieut. J. C. Braine is the last prisoner of the war. He was arrested on the charge of piracy, having commanded a Confederate cruiser, and has been held in confinement for seveal years, being persistently refused a trial.]

A letter from Gov. Patton to Gen. Meade, appears to-day, showing the wrong of forcing the defeated constitution on Alabama; also proving that in many instances the persons elected to office are unable to read and write.
